This section deals with entering the prophetic realm in the Holy Spirit.

Prophetic Words by Keith A. Paul

Introduction:

The content of this Prophetic Journal is not focused on events. Although all of us need detailed personal prophetic event oriented information from God these events usually lose their importance after they occur.

Yesterdays personal prophetic event has very little relevance for today or tomorrow. Its confirmation continues to assure us that God is working on our behalf but the event as such is no longer important as we move beyond it. Scripture brings us many examples of precise personal prophetic words from God to His servants. Mary and Joseph escaped Herod because they obeyed an event focused word from an Angelic visitation.

This Prophetic Journal is also not a description of a vision or allegory describing heavenly themes.

This Prophetic Journal does speak into the spirit man realm to bring encouragement and strength to those seeking a deeper relationship with Him. My purpose in speaking these prophetic words is to bring people into the heart of God. This Prophetic Journal is speaking into the relationship that you have with God and will enrich that relationship.

This Prophetic Journal will not likely be a sit down and read it through in two sessions kind of book. You will benefit most from its contents if you read, meditate, pray and spiritually digest what the Lord is saying. I have not dated the content so you can reference what the Lord is saying through its pages on any occasion.

May you be lead into the Majesty of His Presence.

Sincerely..... Keith A. Paul

Note: On each page the prophetic word is highlighted in green. I then reference and make comments on what I feel the Lord is saying.

May your life be filled, saturated with intense releasing of His Presence from this day forward. This is the desire of Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We are His sons and daughters as we place our faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ through the cross and resurrection.

Heaven is opened to us now. Ascend into His Presence on the prophetic wings of the eagle and be renewed. (Isaiah 40:31)

SECTION ONE
PERSONAL PROPHETIC WORDS FOR THE BELIEVER.

Because you have already put your faith in my provision of salvation, I have already removed all guilt and shame. The enemy is trying to rob you of this truth through persuasive deception. Stand firm in your faith. I see the battle and you will see the victory. You bring great joy to me. Let's walk together again today.

I will take you beyond this season of testing into strength and victory over the accuser of the brothers. I will enable you to guard your heart against the lies of the enemy. I invite you to rest in My Presence for you will not only find peace there but you will learn to find your identity in My love for you. I desire to have relationship with you.

Romans 8: 1 There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. You are being reminded of your sin and your failures. This brings condemnation, but God through Christ Jesus and because of your faith in Him has absolutely removed your sins from you. I John 1: 9 also reminds us of this powerful truth.

I do know every detail. Trust me with the results. I am working these circumstances together for good. Give them all to me. There are some steps I have left for you to take and there are other things that defy human ability. Those areas must be turned over to me. You are looking at the giants that are scattered among the promises. There will always be things that challenge the promises that I give you. The secret to overcoming them is to look at Me. You will remember Joshua and Caleb. They knew the promises, they also saw the giants but they also saw me as the God who knows no impossibilities. I will lift your vision up so that you can see Me, if you are willing. I desire to reveal Myself to you and can only do so if you position yourself in the place of accepting My truth and My Presence. Then you will have faith that will release triumph. Faith that will enable to hear My voice and see My direction.

Numbers 13 records this very critical time in the journey of Moses and the people of Israel. Two men out of twelve had faith to believe God. Joshua and Caleb advised going in the promised land and claim the inheritance. They were men of faith. The ten men of reason and doubt advised not to proceed but to choose another leader and go back to slavery in Egypt. The decision to follow after God regardless of the challenges will always bring blessing and fulfillment of His promises. There is no other way. You can not go back.

I am giving you the opportunity today to build up and encourage someone who needs to hear my voice speaking. Will you be willing to speak words of life? I will confirm your words for this will be a divine appointment. Do not be afraid. You will find the words come easily and the sense of My leading will well up within you. I Am teaching you how to be lead by My Spirit. I Am showing you the attributes of My heart. You will feel My compassion rising within you for the needs that you see. I have chosen you to be this kind of demonstration of My Presence. When you follow Me, I will take the lead.

The root meaning of “Christian” is “Christ like one” In our world this meaning has been lost in religious jargon. This name was first coined in Acts 11:26 and was used to describe the early disciples because they so much demonstrated the resurrected life of Christ Jesus. They were filled with the power and Presence of the Holy Spirit. This is where the Lord wants to take us. Deep into the Presence of the Holy Spirit so that our countenance radiates Him. As we spend time with Him the saturation level increases.

You have asked to hear my voice. I am speaking to you now. Continue to put my word in your heart and it will shine light on your path. There is darkness from the enemy trying to isolate you. Resist the darkness by speaking my truth and it will sustain you. You are precious to me. I Am working within you to perfect the transformation of your life. You have felt isolated and alone. Use this as a motivation to press into deeper realms of My Presence. I have given you the gift of spiritual hunger so that your desires can be fulfilled in Me. I will lead you into unknown areas and encounters with Me that you have not experienced before. I Am taking you into the secret place that David spoke of and knew. It is a place of profound quietness, strength and victory. Trust Me in this even when you experience the fears of letting go of the familiar and pass into the unknown. I will hold you and protect you.

Psalm 91 is a description of a place in relationship that is deep in the heart of God. A place all of us have reserved in Christ. Although it is reserved for us, we must take up that position. He is there to inhabit us as we inhabit Him. This is what you and I were created for... Oneness with and in Him.

I have given My Holy Spirit to you. Please trust Him. He is all you need. Your comfort, strength and joy. These rivers will flow as you simply spend time before me in worship. There is coming a release of My Supernatural Presence that will surpass all other recorded seasons of outpourings that you read about in the past. I Am soon to release My Kingdom and its power filled demonstrations into the earth. Yes, the last rains will be much greater than the former rains. I will release very unusual signs and wonders through My people that have been chosen to demonstrate them. I Am giving you prophetic forecasts of these though many sources in the world. Special effects are coming into reality not by man's technical skills but by the reality of My Holy Spirit. These manifestations of My Holy Spirit will invade every nation and effectively bring in a end time harvest. My Kingdom will be demonstrated so clearly in power, mercy and grace so that no one escapes the accountability of having known of Me. Many will choose darkness rather than light but I will demonstrate Myself before the end. You will be company with those chosen to be clothed by My Spirit.

Danel 11:32 Tells us that in that final season of earth's days many will know God and do the exploits of His Kingdom. We have entered into the season of the Kingdom. The exploits are coming in increased measure. The ordinary will be changed into supernatural. Divine displays will invade the nations. Position yourself before His Presence so that you are a candidate for the Holy Spirit to use for the glory of God.

I take great joy in our relationship. My heart longs to be with you forever. Soon time will pass away as you know it. I am working to bring this dispensation to its fulfillment and ultimate closing. I am shaking the very foundations of the old so I can bring in the new. Do not fear these events. You are held in my arms. You will see the people of this world shaken and gripped by fear as I peel away the things that they have trusted in and clung to. I Am desperately seeking for all who will chose Me if given the truth and given the opportunity. The times are in My hands and yet those times are quickly slipping away. Great joy will emerge in every nation among those that belong to Me because they will sense the times and season. They will know that the delay of grace has been completed. They will understand that grace is accelerating, that the pieces are moving, that My Kingdom is rising with intentional violence to overthrow the dark kingdoms that have enslaved the world. I will bring it to an end. An end that is victorious, that is profound and filled with rejoicing. My Bride will be a glorious Bride. I Am doing this and you will see it.

We are part of this generation but also His eternal Kingdom. His Kingdom governed by God has made divine proclamations about the end. Yes, no one will know the exact day or hour but Jesus said we would know the seasons and recognize the cry of the Spirit who says yes.. come quickly Lord Jesus. My advice is to step deeper in the rivers of Ezekiel 47. Deeper than you have ever gone before until you are completely immersed into and carried along into the depths of the Holy Spirit.

I have provided healing for you. Even as you have read this word today it is enveloping you. Receive my healing touch now. I am pulling out the pain, the disorder and releasing my restoration. I paid for it and now I give it to you. Disease must go. Do not falter in your faith but hold firm. Resist the sickness in my Name and it will leave. My Word for you today is full restoration, full recovery, and renewed health. You will be raised up and be free of the infirmity that has attached itself to you. I have redeemed you from the curse of the law. My will in Heaven is coming to you on earth and you will see the results of this transfer over and into your life. Yes, you have called and I Am answering. I Am also imparting to you the spirit of the warrior... one with Holy boldness and divine authority to combat this same spirit of sickness that attacked you. You will find its presence in others that I will send you to. They will need deliverance also so move forward in fervency and in compassion. Demonstrate My love before and above everything else that you say and do.

Mark 16: 20 Tells us that certain signs would accompany those that believe and declare His word. Our part is to believe and declare. He will do the rest and the rest is totally awesome because He is awesome. Nothing is impossible for our God. We are grafted into the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. His life flows into and through us. All we need to do is let His life flow out to others in need. That's when miracles occur.

Today is a very significant day of choices. I would like to led you if you will let me. Where is my peace regarding those decisions? On which side of the decision does my peace lay? My peace will testify of my desire in each choice to be made. Remember, I am in covenant with you. I have a plan, a purpose and a destiny for you. Refuse the suggestions that your life is controlled by fate. All who belong to Me through their faith in My Son will know My pathways for it is the very nature of who I Am. I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life. I will sharpen your sensitivity to My voice. Today I will guide you with My Peace and it will remove the uncertainty of the things unknown to you. Did you realize that you are being trained for greater positions in My Kingdom? Yes, you also have significant roles to fulfill in My purposes. You have dreamed of doing these things and I will soon place you in those dreams. You have also dreamed of having encounters and relationships with Me that are yet to come. I am declaring over you that these also will be fulfilled for these were planted within you by Me. The fruit bearing season is fast approaching in your life. There will be so much fruit that you will eat its abundance and bless many as you generously give it to others.

John 15:8 says it brings glory and delight to the Father as we bear fruit. Our decisions today will determine tomorrow's harvest. He has offered His counsel to us so that in receiving it our lives will bring honor and glory to Him. We are profoundly blessed and filled with joy as we live before Him in this type of relationship. Many walk through life unfulfilled because they have missed this wonderful opportunity. Today is another opportunity to make decisions that will position you in the garden of God where you will flourish in His Kingdom and display the beauty of Christ.

Rejection is never from me. It is only from the enemy. You have been wounded so many times. Today I am beginning a healing process within you. You will soon find your total fulfillment, acceptance and esteem in me. I am and will always be the pure source for these life issues. I love you. Don't be afraid to trust my love. I will begin to take you into the chambers of My heart so that you are healed in the chambers of your heart. Some of the things that you encounter will be difficult and traumatic. This is because you have not taken My Presence into those chambers. We will walk together into those areas if you will open the doors to them. Yes, I will heal the broken hearted and bind up their wounds. I too was rejected despised and wounded. I Am acquainted with grief and sorrows. Now allow Me to pour out what I have and who I Am so that you can be made whole. You will also find strongholds that the enemy can access within those wounds. You must release the bitterness, unforgiveness and anxiety to Me. Yes, you will experience My love and it will be like rivers of ecstasy flowing over you. I have come to restore you My love.

How beautiful is the Lord in His Majesty. He is delightful yet awesome. He is tender yet totally unmatched in strength. His counsel is saturated with wisdom. We can trust Him in every detail with the secret places of our hearts. Isaiah 33:6 says that He will be a sure foundation for our times a rich source of salvation, wisdom and knowledge. He will keep us today. Preserve us tomorrow and give us access to all we need in the future. This is Who we belong to. He is our Lord our provider, our comfort and help.

Your battle has been very intense. However, I am prevailing over the forces of darkness that you once served. Take courage, be strong for I am with you. I have already broken the chains from you. Praise me in the darkest storm. My servants are waging war on your behalf. Stand firm in me champion of God. You will receive visitations of Holy Angels in your dreams. They have been sent to minister to you. I see all and know all. The enemy is counter attacking with a deceptive cloak that has made you feel isolated and alone. This is not true. It is important that you not rely on your emotions, your intuitions and your own assessment of your situation. Rely only on what I have stated in My word for it is a solid unshakeable foundation. You will overcome and see that victory clearly in the coming days. You have stood bravely in the storm and come to Me in the midst of danger when loss seemed imminent. Now I have declared and end to this trouble. The atmosphere is clearing. The violence of his attack is dissipating. Clear skies are now coming your way. You are under an open heaven so breath in the freshness of My Spirit. Begin to sing in the spirit and all the shock and trauma will lift from you. Come into My Presence singing and thanksgiving. You are a warrior My Bride. Beautiful and favored by your King.

Like Elijah and Deborah the prophets of ancient times, the Lord is training and releasing His servants to shake the nations. These mighty men and women will be friends of the Bridegroom and will know His heart for the nations. When they speak God will confirm their words with mighty works. We are now in a season of acceleration. The people of God are soon to come out of the caves hidden in the mountain of God. They will descend from those caves of preparation and pronounce with a roar that The Kingdom of God is here. There will be lightnings and shakings over the spiritual domains of nations. Philippians 4:13 says that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. This verse is soon to become a portal leading into very unusual manifestations of God's power and glory. His people that are willing to step though this portal will be unusually used by God.

Someone once very close to you has abandoned and betrayed you. You gave your heart in trust and now are feeling such difficult emotions because of this. I Am with you and will comfort you. I will take the sting of these wounds from you. I understand this tragedy very deeply. I am coming to you now and offer Myself as a place to weep, to grieve, to cry out and then to receive tangible strength to carry on. I will give you discernment to recognize the enemy's plan to take advantage of you during the time when you are most vulnerable. I will preserve you from harm's way. I will be all you need. You will find deep peace, joy and resolve beyond this valley of heartache. I promise again to walk with you hand in hand. You will awaken in the mornings with a song in your spirit. Begin to sing that song because it is a gift from Me that will set your course each day. Yes, you are My dearest friend and I will not abandon you. I will address the questions of why in due time. Your mind is racing trying to make sense of what happened. Let me counsel you with these words: give your cares to Me and I will work out what needs to be done.

It is true. Jesus has come as friend and Lord. His Holy Spirit is working in our lives daily and will give us all we need as we face difficult seasons in this life. The gifts that He releases into our time of need are more than enough to carry us through. Psalm 23 tells us that He prepares a table in the presence of our enemies. When we feast on Him in His Presence we will not only survive but we will thrive and flourish.

His life will cause us to overcome what others did or what the devil intended for harm. We must rest in His arms.

Tell them of my heart as you stand before your listeners. They already know something of my power. Now tell them of my kindness, my mercy, my love, my tenderness and my desire to know them. They were created for this relationship with me. Spiritual union with all of me is the true reward for trust in me. I have prepared their hearts for what you will say. I will release My life giving words through you. They will respond and in eternity you will see the importance of what you accomplished through the ministry you did in My Name. I Am touching your words, your thoughts and your innermost spirit in profound ways.

You have not fully understood what you have experienced but this should not cause you to be anxious. I Am preparing you for things yet to come. This is why you have felt out of sorts because what I have given you is not for today but for tomorrow. I will give you the edge, the advantage and the wisdom you need for the events in the future. Had you not received them in advance confusion would have overwhelmed you. However, now you are prepared. You will know the preciseness of My timing in all these experiences. The dream I gave you was a parable. In it you have seen the end result and how I will work out the circumstances.

Philippians 1:6 tells us to be confident because He that begun a good work within us will also be faithful to complete it. Will we always understand? No. Will there never be challenges that come before us? No. In all these things He will cause us to be overcomers. You are a member of a very elite crowd. You are among the redeemed of the Lord. You are one of Body of Christ and He assures us of His completed work through us.

You are weary. I often grew weary in my earthly ministry. I understand and have come to you now to refresh you. Lay your head on my shoulder. Rest in my arms. Sing to me. Whisper to me your deepest heart felt love. I will lift away the fatigue and pour over you the garments of strength. You will be nourished in my presence.

I am ready to take you away with Me. I am ready to reveal My Kingdom to you. I will show you the treasures of My heart, the richness of My grace and the depth of My heart. I Am searching for those willing to follow Me into these areas of My Presence because I have chosen My people to carry these treasures back into your realm and release them into the multitudes that are sitting in dark places. Have you seen them and heard their anguish. They are waiting for the Light, for the One Love and for the refreshing of My Spirit. I have chosen you to carry a prophetic mantle so that you can speak life and transformation into many. I will release many divine encounters into your life for I will set your heart aflame with My Passion for my vineyard. Yes, you will feel the kindling of a fire within you that will ignite many with my intense love. They will carry this love and demonstrate it in My vineyard. The harvest will be great because of this impartation over your life. Rise like Joshua of old to cross over into the promises I have given to you.

And so we are called to go forth in the power of His might not in human wisdom or effort but in His might. Ephesians 6:10 tells us to be strong in the Lord and the power of His might. If this is commanded then there is promise. There is also provision. We are in for better days ahead. God is stepping into the nations in an unprecedented way in the coming days. We will rise from our places with a refreshing. We will rise from our paths to ascend into the greatness of His Kingdom. His favor and blessing will overshadow us with surely goodness and mercy. Prepare yourself to race with the swift and run through the troops.

Can I visit your dreams again? I want to bring understanding to you if you will permit me entrance. I am pouring out revelation on those who will receive. Let me walk into every area of your innermost being. You will discover me. I am waiting on your invitation. I have predetermined guidelines when it comes to My intereaction with the will of mankind. You all have free choice. I therefore wait on your invitation to enter your inner most secret places. Invite Me in and we will go on some journeys to explore the greatness of Who I Am. You have longed for this and now I Am setting you aside for revelations of My order, designed especially for you. I desire to reproduce Myself within you. I long to transfer My DNA into your spiritual genetics so that you will become one with Me. This is what you were created for; uniquely you but uniquely created in My image. I Am restoring My Image in My people now. We have moved forward the purposes of heaven. We have released the Angelic hosts with assignments of impartation for My people. They are released to download directly into the spirit level of you My people. You will have angelic encounters that will accelerate your transformation. You will see them in dreams and visions bringing golden censers, golden gift boxes that will release new spiritual substance within you. Record these encounters because they are from Me.

We see Daniel being visited by the Living

Creatures in Daniel chapter one. The glory of the Lord is revealed to Him and in chapter three verse three He eats a scroll that was given Him. When He ate it; it filled His stomach (spirit) and He was commissioned to speak the word of the Lord over nations. God is releasing again the Living Creatures from the throne room to invade the earth with end time glory. This glory will saturate the people of God and release them into the nations to demonstrate the supernatural Presence of God. This coming season will stir the nations towards repentance and salvation or if they refuse His grace; to judgement and destruction. The times are of highest importance.

You passed by temptation today.
Thank you for commitment to me.
Your strength will increase. I have shown you the power that lies in choice. Seek to know me and you will find me. There are many distractions that will lure you away from that most important decision of all. I will always reward those who seek me with all their hearts. They will explore the depths and heights and know me in profound ways. I delight in you and delight in revealing myself to you. I often hide Myself from you in the heaviness of My Presence because you are not able to see Me in fullness. It however is the closeness of My Presence that is most important. For I Am enveloping you with layers of My glory that will not fade away. These layers are not seen by the natural eyes but those with spiritual eyes will see it on you. Many will be drawn to you because of what they feel and sense radiating from you. It is My Presence that drew people to my physical presence in my earthly ministry. It is also My Presence that draws people to you now. Don't confuse this drawing for something else. There is responsibility that comes with increased glory. Keep your heart purely fixed on Me and you will escape the traps of the evil one.

It is recorded in Matthew 4: 9 that satan offered Jesus the kingdoms of this world if He would bow down and worship him. We must keep our hearts focused on the relationship that we have with Christ Jesus. This is the priceless pearl, the treasure contained in earthen vessels, the redeemed soul that God so loved the world for and gave His Son. Don't exchange it for the trivial emptiness the enemy offers in exchange. Greater is He that lives within you so resist the devil and he will flee from you. God will provide a way for you to escape. He will give you wisdom and courage to stand your ground and overcome your oppressor. Victory is near. You will see it and rejoice in God your provider.

Fear is not from me. Reverence and awe are from me. It is time to speak peace over the storms the enemy has sent. Command them to be still and they will obey. As you do it in my name I will quickly bring you through to safety. All is not lost.

When you lose your focus it is difficult to see beyond the immediate storm swirling around you. Come into My arms again and drink deeply from the fountains of Heaven. The waters of My Spirit will bring life to every parched area of your life. Eat from the Bread of My Word and you will be sustained like Elijah was so He could complete His journey to meet with Me. Yes, there are forshadowings of what you are experiencing now. Others have walked this pathway before and I sustained them. I will sustain you as well. Come along then and let Me be your everything. Lean on Me for I love you deeply. I will lead you beside the still waters and into the green pastures. When you are refreshed we will ascend into the high places; into the mountains of God.

Habakkuk 3:19 says the Sovereign Lord is our strength. He will give us feet like the feet of a deer and enable us to ascend onto the heights.

This is the high calling of every believer. To ascend through the blood of Jesus and sit together with Him in heavenly places. There we gain heavens perspective. There we receive the anointings, the glory, the wisdom and the grace of the Throne Room. It is from there that we descend back to the earthly realm. It is because of this that we become of greatest use to our Lord. You ask how? Speak to the Holy Spirit about this and He will show the entrance way after you pass under the blood of Jesus. The way is now open. Why do you delay?

I want to release my supernatural works through you. Be lead by my compassion. Place your hands on the sick. Pray in Faith. I will restore them. Don't be hesitant any longer. What I have given you, you must use or it will wither away. You already understand the principles of giving and receiving, of sowing and reaping and of proclaiming and inheriting. You understand the importance of hearing and obeying. Now that you have the foundations laid in Me we can walk forth together to do the works of My kingdom. Now is the time to take every opportunity given you to move in My Spirit. Yes, some will receive and believe. Others will reject and neglect the gifts of God in their presence. My compassion will preserve you. You will experience enough joy to refresh you and enough grace to protect you from mens praise. I will give you words of knowledge and discernment so that all of these anointings will accomplish My purposes. You are now moving into a season of harvesting in your life. You have sown and now you will reap. There are many awaiting your tenure with them.

Matthew 10: 7 tells us that Jesus gives to us His authority and power to work the supernatural wherever we encounter human need. We are to be releasers of the Kingdom of Heaven on this earth. Some will do this in the prayer closet and others on the streets. The warriors of His Kingdom will go forth to bring down strongholds and release deliverance for the captives. Every time someone is born again deliverance occurs. Deliverance from the kingdom of darkness. You can do this in His Name and for His glory.

My ministering servants are around you. They will help you to stand firm in me. Your strength alone is seldom enough. When you pray for my will to be done, those angels assigned to you will do all that is necessary. I have hidden their appearances from your natural eyes so that you are not overwhelmed and distracted by them. They are always accessing my Throne Room and carry the heaviness of My Glory with them. Although you can not see them with your natural eyes be assured that they are with you. You have felt them on many occasions. I tell you these truths because it is part of My Kingdom operations in the earth realms. You are not alone. You have more than enough to succeed. You must trust My Holy Spirit on a deeper level for He will take you to the places that I have designed you to live in.

Romans 8:14 says that those that are led by the Spirit are the sons of God. We must have the heart of servanthood but in relationship be sons and daughters of the Father in Heaven. Jesus is our role model. He took upon Himself the role of servant but operated as the Son. As His Image is formed in us we too will duplicate His roles and life within us. There is great satisfaction in this for we truly enter our created purpose when this occurs. We must see His Kingdom through the eyes of faith operating in our spirit. Close your natural eyes and ask the Holy Spirit within you to give you spiritual eyes to see, spiritual sight of the things He wants to show you. He will bring images of words, pictures, scenes and circumstances. As

He trains you in this He will often use visual images that have no real importance other than it is confirming the truth of what you saw. This ability to see with the spiritual eyes will sharpen in focus so that your skill becomes readily usable and precise. A tool for the Holy Spirit to operate through you. Holy Spirit will also give you ability to hear His voice. This may be an audible voice but more often it is thought patterns that are projected into your thought realm. He will also give you wisdom and discernment to screen out the enemy's intrusion. Trust the Holy Spirit with this area of your inner being.

I am taking you into higher places so you can see the bigger picture. You have asked for wisdom and now it is granted. I value confidentiality. There are some secrets that you must carry deep in your heart until I release you to declare them. If you prematurely share these the enemy will steal the seed away. If you leave the seed in your heart it will flourish and be ready at the right season. Guard your heart. I have placed treasures there that will bring great results in the earth. It is My hearts desire to see all My sons and daughters incredibly rich in the richness of My Kingdom. Rich in mercy, in love, in grace, in forgiveness and in good works. All that I did as I ministered on earth I desire to see operating in My people. If you will give yourself to transformation of character I will live through you.

The secrets of the Kingdom are given to us. The Prophets and Seers of ancient times longed to see the things that are available to us in this age. Now that Christ has completed His work we as believers have access into the Throne Room for the counsel of the God Head. We need to ask so that we can receive. We need to seek so we can find. We need to knock so doors will open. We must not get side track by earthly matters. Yes God knows events of tomorrow and could easily share them with us. However, our quest for wisdom and understanding should be focused on where, how and when to release His Kingdom into earth.

As Jesus taught the disciples to pray: Father let your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

The eyes are the window to the soul. I am giving you understanding on how to minister to those in need. Their eyes will reveal the inner need. Meet that need with my love, my mercy and my power. I have commissioned you to be a physician with divine orders to restore the wounded and broken in heart. I will pour out rich substance through you. The eternal riches of My Kingdom are meant to be given to mankind. To those willing to receive, I will give to abundantly. My Holy Spirit wants to look through your eyes. When you look into the eyes of someone you have opportunity to look into their innermost being. They will trust you as you love them purely. They will respond to My Presence within you. Make these connections for Me for I have seen you into the midst of humanity as a light to shine into dark places.

Jesus said that the eyes are the window of the soul. As we look into the eyes of those in need we look into their soul. That knowledge enables us to speak into the needs of that person. When we minister to others we impart the rivers (or the Presence) of the Holy Spirit. He is the source working through our vessels. Jesus said in John 6:38 that as we believe in Him the rivers of the Spirit would flow out of our inner most being. Those releases of the Spirit refresh us and also refresh others in their need. Impartation multiples the Presence of the Holy Spirit.

All of my sons and daughters must spend time with me. Practice taking me with you through out the day. When you come into the secret place I will reward you. You realize that when I walked with the disciples I was with them. I have that ability to be with you in every detail of today. When you don't consider this fact you cut Me out of your life. I Am willing to be involved with you in all you do. Yes, I will never leave you but will the time be quality time or simply escorting you? I call you to relationship once more. The hunger of your heart is longing for this and we should not neglect each other because of distractions. Take Me into the situations that tend to preoccupy you most. I will reward you deeply for this is My Nature. I speak to you in this manner because I love you and know that you will receive this. It is not a rebuke but a reminder of what is priority.

Jesus speaks of relationship in John 15. He is the vine and we are the branches. We can not survive spiritually without relationship with Him. Our lives become fruitful out of intimacy with Him. His call for intimacy with Him is of utmost importance for our survival and our very existence. He wants to know us not know about us because we claim to have membership.

My children are always safe in my care. My protection has vetoed the plans of the enemy. When my children come home, it is home in my Presence forever. You have been briefly separated from someone very special to you. Life in its current age will bring these separations. They are not defeats for the believer. I wept deeply as my Son in agony died on redemptions cross. I know and feel your pain. You will find comfort and strength in me. Don't ask the questions that you alone can not answer. Instead rest in my arms. I Am releasing comfort to you now. In this very moment I Am placing My arms around and drawing you into the place of rest. Weariness is being lifted, sorrow is being consoled, grief is receiving assurance and your focus is being shifted to life forever in Heaven. I Am giving you grace to endure this separation from loved ones until reunion occurs in eternity. I Am with you now. Receive every moment My Presence and you will be strengthened.

Jesus told us not to be afraid for He would comfort us and that He was preparing a place for us in John 14:1,2. Our part is to trust in God. In this we are preserved. In the night seasons of the soul when all around is dark know that He is with us. When it seems we are crushed under the heavy weight of loss, we will find Him near. He will give a song in the night season. Psalm 30:5 says: Weeping may endure the night but His Joy comes in the morning. No one but Jesus truly understands what you are experiencing right now but you can trust in Him to walk you through. The briteness of a new day is fast approaching and you will find Him to be your dearest friend.

I hear great weeping in the earth. It is the cry of souls longing to know their God. I am searching in response to that cry for those who will go and demonstrate my life to them. Will you feed them the bread of life today? I will give more as you hand out the bread of life. Just as I wept over the city of Jerusalem so I Am weeping because of the anguish in the earth. I Am resolved therefore to invade the earth with My Presence. I Am preparing My people for great and mighty acts of mercy. Yes mercy will precede judgement. Mercy will be so rich, so full, so pervasive, so compelling, so complete, so available that not one person will miss their opportunity to receive. I Am absolutely righteous and My Mercy is everlasting. Mercy knows no end. My Mercy is sufficient and abundant. I Am releasing agents of mercy both Angelic and human. This gift of mercy will captivate My people so intensely that cities will know that My mercy has arrived when My chosen ones step onto the streets in that vicinity. I will raise up Joel's army and this army will have troop regiments within it that will become known as M.T.s. These Mercy Troops will release awesome miracles of restoration over saved and unsaved people as a witness of My mercy before the End comes. These vessels will weep over cities and nations. Their intercession will bring open Heavens over where ever they gather. Great signs and wonders will be released to confirm their messages of truth. Just as My judgement is absolutely awesome

so will My mercy be absolutely awesome. This mercy will bring about multitudes of salvations, deliverances and restorations.

David had prophetic understanding of this great mercy of the Lord. He received this by inspiration from the Lord.

Psalm 145:8 says The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Psalm 145:9 The LORD is good to all, and his mercy is over all that he has made.

We must be carriers of His mercy. Having received mercy we give mercy to others. This is God's call in this season

Giants are still falling as my people rise up against the boasts of the enemy. I have placed in your hands the weapons of your God. Go out in the power of love and might. Take my authority and exercise it over devils and disease. Those who know their God will be strong and do exploits. Rise up warrior of the kingdom. You will encounter resistance in the strongholds of the enemy but victory is yours. You shall go forth in conquest. The Kingdom of God will come on the earth. I have decreed this and will perform. I can not lie or forget My decrees and so it will be as I have said. Run with Me into the enemy's camp and bring back the captives now set free. We will lay waste to the dark places and plunder them until his final time has come for judgement.

Psalm 110:3 says that His troops will be willing on the day of battle. Arrayed in holy majesty they will receive the dew of their youth. Remember, He is the Lord of Heaven's Hosts and we are sons and daughters of the King and are within His ranks. God will prevail over those that have rallied against you. Your victory is assured.

Do you remember the power demonstrated as you saw the lightning falling from the storm clouds? This is but a small example of my power. I spoke and star systems were created. You must lift up your eyes to see the greatness of your God. Earthly cares dim your eyes but if you will look upon me you will rise into the destiny I have ordained for you. You are pressing through the last line of obstacles the enemy placed. Hold steady as you advance. I am with you.

11 Corinthians 3:18 tells us that as we gaze upon Him we are transformed into His image from glory to glory.

As we look upon Him something happens. There is a transference, an impartation and imprinting of His Presence into our spiritual DNA. Remain in His Presence and you will receive what you need most for God is available

There are people who need my love today. You will experience no greater joy when you love them with my love. Let's do this together. I will be your source but you need to be the vessel. I will give you divine appointments to release kindness into the lives of many. I will use your smile, your words and your actions to demonstrate My heart to them. Some of these divine appointments will be brief but significant because I will use you to plant seeds of hope into their hearts. These seeds will grow and flourish and become fruitful for I will preserve them for

My kingdom. You will see through My eyes and perceive the goodness of the Lord. Great joy will flood your heart and you will delight in the honor of sowing precious seeds and knowing they have eternal results.

I have chosen you to be a kingdom gardener. You are one of many chosen for this task. Take My word and speak it over others either in person or in your prayers for the ones I bring to your attention. You must understand that when you and I are communing together spiritually that I Am showing you those that are ready as good soil to receive those words. As you speak My words over them from your spirit those seeds will spring up within the spirit of those I have targeted for planting. Do you understand this? I Am the Lord of the Harvest and I direct My Sowers in the planting. I have brought a new season into the earth. I Am raising up many who will not only be preachers, teachers or evangelists as they have been known in the past. I Am now choosing people from My Body that will function as sowers and they will sow from spirit to spirit within the prayer and spirit realm. They will pollinate My word directly spirit to spirit.

Listen to My voice in this and you will see the results springing up. This is a form of Intercession that I Am releasing into the earth for this season.

Mark 16: 1-20 Here Jesus shares the secrets of sowing from the Kingdom into the spirits of mankind. He identifies in verse 20 what good soil is like within mankind. He also identifies that this type of soil produces tremendous harvests. Only He can see the heart condition and if it is prepared for planting. If unguided mankind out of zeal and with sincerity will scatter the seed. Those directed by the Holy Spirit will place the seed precisely into soil ready for it. The Lord is sharpening the skills of those He will use in this season of harvest.

Did you know that I am hungry and thirsty for your fellowship? When I first appeared to the disciples after my resurrection I asked them what they had to eat. I then ate this food to confirm the reality of my resurrection. This also symbolized my hunger for fellowship. I want to come in and eat with you and give you revelation just as I did in that room with my disciples. Can we share together? This is what I promised and what I long for. I Am calling you into much deeper levels of relationship with Me. You have been prepared for this and all you need to do now is spend time with Me. Respond to the longings of your heart. I have given you desire for more. I will lead you deep into encounters with Me that you have not experienced before. These are the times of the Bridegroom wooing the Bride. I Am pursuing you with deep longings that will bring us into oneness. Look to Me and you will enter. Call to Me and you will know My Presence.

Jesus states His desire and intentions in Revelation 3:20 concerning the pathway into intimacy. Relationship with Him can and should be so much more. We have before us the One who created the universe and every living thing. He invites us to host His Presence. This is a profound and wonderful honor. We can experience the electrifying, energizing, rejuvenating, life giving, refreshing, joy producing, enriching Presence of God in communion with Him. Let us not hesitate but step forward into His Presence.

I have already prepared the tomorrows for you. In it you will see my faithfulness and I will see you through. I am enlarging your portfolio because you have been faithful with the small things. I am bringing advancement and success to you. Resources will be released that once were restrained. Glorify me in all that I give. Follow Me into your destiny. My pathway is clearly marked out before you. I will always give choices to you and advise you which choice is best. You will walk through into new dimensions of My Kingdom. You have sought Me and longed for this and now I will deliver you out of yesterday's painful failures and delays. You will be lead into what you have longed for. The cloud like fog is lifting. The enemy has resisted you but because you have resisted him he has fled. Now take the territory given to you as promised. You have asked favor over your family. I have released My grace to help them with the challenges that they find themselves in. Your needs will be met for My provision is released to you.

Romans 8:28 reminds us that God will work all things together for good to those that love Him and are called according to His purpose. As we face the challenges of life we often feel isolated and far from our Lord. However, the truth is that He is working on our behalf. Our trust and faith in Him brings great reward in that relationship.

There are deeper wells of my Spirit that I Am preparing to open within you. Set yourself aside and spend time with me. What you have felt stirring within has disturbed and unsettled you. But these are the early signs of new streams bursting forth. Many will drink and be refreshed by these deeper streams of my Presence. Look to what I Am doing in the earth. There are natural parallels of what I Am doing in the spirit. The recent activity of volcanoes is a parable. The deep internal tensions of the earths core are breaking upward to the surface. These can be detected before the eruption. In similar manner I Am heating up the inner core of your being. You acknowledge this and feel the trembling deep within you. It is because I Am bursting open the deep places within and because your spirit is part of mine you experience the birthing. Release the supernatural gifts of My Holy Spirit and these will give an outlet for the energy building up within. This is ordained by Me.

It is recorded in Genesis 7: 11 that the fountains of the great deep were opened and the windows of heaven were opened. Noah and his family and all that were with him were preserved. There is coming again a similar bursting forth of the fountains of the deep that will flood the earth. This time it will be a spiritual flood of God's Kingdom. His Glory will flood forth in signs, wonders and supernatural events. We will be preserved by this Glory being poured forth and the spiritual landscape of the nations will be changed because of it.

I have placed My call on you. You will be used in my kingdom. Follow after my heart and I will show you how, when and where to reveal me. If you will see what the Father is doing and do it, you will see the greater works that I spoke about. I Am training you to tear down strongholds and also to build up strong places of refuge. I Am calling you to carry My Presence. You will learn how to operate in the power of My Spirit. Pray, Pray, Pray for this moving of the Spirit. It is what the world needs. The moving of the Holy Spirit in power is all that is necessary. It is not by might nor by power but by My Spirit. Your willingness to pursue Me is preparing you for the Kingdom. Your willingness to walk with Me will enable you to overcome all that oppose you because you have tapped into Me. I know no impossibilities. Your life from beginning to end will be a testimony bringing honor to Me.

Romans 11:29 tells us that the gifts and call of God are irrevocable. Forever established in God's thoughts and intents towards us. Yes, we can neglect those things that God has placed before us. However, when we walk with Him our path will be marked by His favor and blessing through every trial and challenge.

People also slandered me and My ministry. Your confidence will remain if placed in me. I overcame because I Am always one with the Father. I Am your refuge and help. Thank you for enduring the abuse of false accusations. Overcome these by my blood and your testimony. These will always defeat the enemy. I Am pleased with you and together we will walk on past all of this. Disregard the voice of the enemy. It is only lies. I Am releasing joy into your heart as a gift to preserve you in the midst of oppressing anxieties. Drink deeply of the knowledge that you have of Me. Remind yourself of My Goodness, My faithfulness, My kindness, My strength and all that I Am towards you and for you. This will break off the depleting oppression of the enemy.

James 1: 2 says to count it all joy when you encounter trials and temptations, for when you endure, it produces rich rewards. In this life there will be wearisome trials. We are refined by these seasons. Character is built and purified. We become more like Him and His image shines through us as a light into the darkness of this world.

I am releasing the resources you need. It will come to you at the right time. My heart is touched by need and responds to faith. I still multiply the bread and fish to feed the multitudes. These are days of abundance. Jehovah-Jireh is my name. All I Am really asking you to do is pray and believe, pray and believe, and then pray and believe. I have allowed you to see with the eyes of your heart the things that are available to you. These treasures are literally from out of this world but are normal in My Kingdom. Dare to believe Me to bring them therefore into your life. What is your heart telling you? What is the Spirit saying? What do your eyes behold?

What do you desire? I have place these provisions before you. Now rise in faith and eat from the table I have spread before you.

Matthew 21:22 If you believe you will receive whatever you ask for. In prayer. David spoke of seeing a table prepared for Him by the Lord. I have often wondered what is on that table? I believe it is all the good and wonderful things that the Lord can do and will do for us. If that is the case, it is time to rise and eat of these precious provisions from the Lord. These provisions will nourish us just as they did the ancient ones of old.

I am asking you to refocus. Much has overwhelmed and distracted you. In the midst of doing what I have given to you, be sure to guard your relationship with me. Doing the stuff is not my first priority. It is time at the end of yet another busy day to come away with me. There is delightful treasures I want to share with you that will totally renew you. You bring me so much joy and I miss you. Please don't allow legitmate tasks that I have given you to strip away time alone with me. Carry me with you and in you. Let's go forth together. Don't become anxious about this just rise into My Presence. Step through the door that I gave you. We will fellowship together in the Heavenly places.

Your vision will clear as you rise on eagle wings. You will be renewed in the inner most places of the spirit.
When you come away with Me I will give My Glory.

Isaiah 40:31 invites us to wait on the Lord and rise on the wings of an eagle. In that place of communion with Him we receive total renewal and direction. We are empowered with Him. Why not ascent into the Throne Room? Ask Him to take you there. The way is open through Jesus our

You are my inheritance. I have invested everything to purchase you and secure you. Be certain that I will not abandon you. You are precious to me. More precious than all the earth's beauty and wealth. Do not pay attention to voices from the past that degrade you. Rest and abide in my truth. Truth brings peace and shelter for you . Understand that I can not break covenant with you because that covenant was made with the My Blood. My Blood will never lose its power.

Psalm 94: 14 says the Lord will not reject His people; He will never forsake His inheritance.

Rejection is one of the most common conditions afflicting mankind. It can become a very destructive force within the heart. It feeds on insecurity and builds strongholds of oppression within the spirit. It first showed up in the Garden of Eden after Adam and Eve sinned. They ran and hid from The Presence of God. They said “we were afraid and hid because of our nakedness”. Insecurity results because of actual sin, condemnation for sin or deception that causes us to feel unforgiven or condemned wrongfully. The solution for this is found under the blood of Jesus and safe in His arms. Relationship with the Lord will remove this crushing stronghold that strangles us. Often those that suffer from this condition will look at themselves as a servant of God and not a Son or Daughter. Rarely will this condition allow one to feel that they are part of His Bride. The work that that the Lord is doing in the church is to bring His people into relationship with Him as His Bride.

We must come before Him and seek His heart, His intimate love and fellowship. In this we will be raised to our place in Him

You have been journeying through a time of dryness where all has been desolate. I also was led by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness to be tested. By my grace you have passed these trials. There is purity within you. I will bring you now into a productive place. You will flourish for I delight in you and have brought you into my embrace. The longings of your heart have been refined in the wilderness. The desperation that you felt has propelled you deeper into My Presence.

Isaiah 62:4 says that you will no longer be called deserted or desolate for the Lord delights in you. The Season of fruitfulness though not yet arrived is coming in great abundance. The work of the Holy Spirit within you is moving you towards this. Intimacy produces fruitfulness. You have been sanctified for this purpose. Your life is coming into a season of manifesting the Glory of His Presence.

I am releasing my refreshing on you. Daily manna is available and it is found in my presence. I will pour out spiritual drink on you as well. Strong drink that will intoxicate you and cause you to rejoice with such profound joy. He that is hungry let him come and eat. He that is thirsty let him come and drink.. Come to the banquet table that I prepared for you even in the presence of the enemy. Be filled with my spirit by singing and making melody in your heart unto me.

Ephesians 5: 18,19

The simplicity of heart felt worship offered to the Lord brings us into the Throne Room. The door to His Heart is open and we can come to Him through this portal of worship. Now is the season of the Throne Room. Now is the season for feasting in the Father's banquet room.. Now is the time to gaze upon His majesty and be saturated with His Glory. He is calling us. He has given the invitation to come. There is deep and intimate exchanges in His Presence. Make every effort to spend time with the King for this is your place. You bring Him great delight as you express your heart to Him.

When the winds blow they always bring change. When the Holy Spirit works in your life this also will bring change. This change is ordained by me. You may not fully understand what that change will mean but trust me for the outcome. My help is there for every step you must take. I am bringing you to a higher place. I am planning to show you great and mighty things. Things that you do not understand now and will not be able to verbalize after you gaze upon them. They are the mysteries of My Presence. I will enrich your life and the people of God with divine radiance and glory. I Am producing My Glory in My Body the Bride. It will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

Jeremiah 33:3 says ask of the Lord and He will show us great and mighty things that we have not known. This is a season of new things. Incredible things beyond description are coming upon us for these days of the King. The purify fire of the Holy Spirit are being fanned by the winds of the Holy Spirit. It is a time of impartation. A time of lifting us higher.... to new realms. The Lord is releasing the ministering Angels to take us into the heavenly realms for encounters and revelations. Now is God's season to open wide the heavens and pour out the treasures of His Kingdom.

You have been afflicted by the enemy. Today I am delivering you out of his hand. Do not be afraid for I am releasing my strength into you. Stand firm in me. In my name forbid him to continue his oppression. You are learning the tactical operations as my warrior bride. Spiritual intimacy with me and the exercising of authority and power. I have given you the victory, now go and seize it for my glory. Today you will taste the sweetness of my love and savor the joy of victory. I Am bringing you fresh revelation for this season. I have opened the door into the realm of My Spirit. I will bring you into the counsel chambers. You will begin to see and hear new revelation of Myself and how that applies to your destiny and circumstances. Many are hearing My Voice in this season. This will equip you for deeper and deeper discoveries of Who I Am. Begin to expect the unexpected in the realm of spiritual insight.

Psam 34:19 As concerns the enemy and his skirmishes against you. The Lord says in this verse that the righteous may have many troubles but the Lord delivers them out of them all.

Each difficult circumstance is another opportunity to discover another truth of God and His grace to overcome and walk through the trials. There are treasures hidden in each trial. The Lord enables us to find these treasures if we will look to Him and ask for wisdom. He has conquered the grave and opened wide the door that leads to His counsel. He is walking with us in every moment of everyday.

I will turn the failure into success. I am glorified inspite of human weakness and imperfection. All I ask of you is your total surrender to me. It is then that my strength is made perfect in weakness. Acknowledge my power and wisdom today. As you do it releases me to operate in every detail. I will complete perfectly my work in and through you. You will be lifted up and taken onto new places in Me. You must begin to see yourself as I see you. Yes, you live in the earth realms but I created you to live also in My realms. You have been created in Christ Jesus to live in both realms. In Me you have access into My heart and My majesty. Come and I will fill you up again with My love and My sufficiency. Don't be afraid of tomorrow. I Am the God of today and tomorrow. You will see My leading, My provision and My power coming on you. You have asked Me and I have heard your call. Come straight forward with Me. I Am leading you through to the other side.

Romans 8:28 clearly tells us of His Hand moving on our behalf to bring good out of every situation. Good into every day. Surely goodness and mercy will follow us every day and we are going up to dwell in His house forever. Take strength in this assurance. As we move through this life we see the quickness of life passing before us. We are journeying to our eternal place in His Presence. Breath in His Life today. Become familiar with the realm of the Spirit. His Presence is drawing close to us. Respond to Him.

Continue to ask, to seek and to knock. I have entrusted to you so much of my kingdom's affairs. My servant Elijah heard my promise to send rain but then he birthed the provision forth by prayer. Prayer takes hold of heavens provisions and transfers them into earth. I will help you to pray effectively as you go through the birthing. I am with you to see it completed. I Am releasing the spirit of Elijah in these days. Prophetic impartation will increase on you. The ability to discern the times and seasons is being fine tuned within you. The preciseness of knowing My voice is increasing in you life. Keep your eyes open and ears open to the call of the Spirit. There is a rhythm in your spirit that is an echo of what is transpiring in heaven for I Am sending the sounds of heaven into the earth. The sound is releasing the heart of My Father and it echoes the desire of My heart for you My Bride. Rise up My Bride to the place I have called you. See yourself as through My eyes.

Isaiah 41:10 says so do not fear for I Am with you, do not be dismayed for I Am your God. I will strengthen you and uphold you My righteous right hand.

You see you have His favor. None of us deserve this but in Christ Jesus we are elevated to the place of Sonship and His Blood makes us worthy. This is truth that goes beyond our failures, our weakness and our sin. We will only make it to heaven because of His grace.

You have grown weary and this has contributed to the discouragement. Look to me now. In the darkest moment I am still with you leading, providing and caring for you. Do not look with natural eyes but look with eyes of faith. I am all around you fighting on your behalf. You need to rest physically but you need to come into My rest. The rest of the Spirit is eternal but for today. All those used by Me have come to end of their natural stamina. Be a good steward of your physical parts for they will need rejuvenation. When I walked upon the earth I went to isolated places to spend time with My Father. You need to this often. I will exchange your weakness with My power. Come often and you will see much. Ascend often into My Presence.

Psalm 27:14 says wait for the Lord, be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.

Learning to let go and let God is one of the most important and often most difficult lessons in our relationship with Him. His life is flowing into you now and it comes because you have let go to let Him. His time is not always ours. His answer may not manifest in the same fashion as we expected. We can wait, we can be strong and be encouraged. Why? The Lord is not a man that He should lie, nor a son of man that He should change His Mind. His promise is certain and His provision real.

Come often to me. I have created and called you to feast in my presence. Do not miss my invitation to come. Make it your first priority. You have some experiences that I have given you. However, I am ready to pour out revelation on any that will seek me. I long for you to know me and so please come or you are in danger of missing your highest place in destiny. It is heart to heart relationship that will get you there. I Am coming to rescue you, I Am coming to invade you, to rapture you, to fill you with My Holy Fire. I Am coming to take you into My heart. My Love for you is so deep, so profound, so intimate and I Am coming to saturate you fully. I have heard your desire and I will not disappoint you. My Beauty will flow through your soul. I will take you into new experiences with Me. Be receptive of new revelation of bursting into your dreams. I will bring visions to you of My eternal omnipotent Presence.

1 Corinthians 8: 3 says that the one who loves God is known by Him.

This word “known” is a word that ranges in scale from remotely knowing of someone all the way to someone that knows someone intimately. God is giving us an invitation. The degree of what we experience in that relationship is uniquely depended on us and our God. Often our neglect of that relationship is to our loss.

The gifts and anointings I have placed in you will continue to develop as you use them at my direction. I will give opportunities and set up appointments for you to minister to others. You are a carrier of my presence. Let's do this together. I already gave you the desire. Even that desire is a gift from me. You will see supernatural miracles as you yield to me. I love you so much. I cherish our times together and will pour out greater love into and through you. That love will burst through your words and actions. My compassion will keep you focused on what is most important. You will be an olive tree flourishing in the house of your God.

A fruitful branch bearing much fruit into My Kingdom. I have set you in a prosperous season so that your roots will grow deeply into me. Your life will bring honor to Me. I knew you before the foundations of the earth. I watched you as you came into faith and relationship with Me. Now let My life through you. Let the miracles be done in My Name and in My power. I will do the works but will work through you. You were chosen for this wonderful task.

John 14:14. Jesus said “you can ask for anything in My Name and I will do it.”

What a wonderful assurance of truth. We must hear His heart, know His direction and His will. Those are given qualifications, beyond that however is an open ended promise. He is opening His treasure chest, His heart, His Kingdom, His purposes and His eternal resources. Time to go for all He has planned for us. Now is the time for God is the God of the now. Yesterday is gone and tomorrow will come. God will work today. We must see Him as such. Today is the day of salvation. Now faith is... and it is sufficient to carry us forward to do the exploits of His kingdom.

SECTION TWO

CORPORATE WORDS OF PROPHECY FOR THE LARGER BODY OF CHRIST.

- 1. The office of the Prophetic is being restored to the church in this season. Many are being raised up and brought out of the place of being unknown to speak from the heart of God. We are living in a new season. Yet it is a season of revealing the old truths and mantles foreshadowed by others in the scripture. The church will need to make room and embrace this new move of God. The office of teacher, pastor, evangelist will need to recognize the ministry of the prophet. For rapidly approaching is the Apostolic servants already beginning to emerge upon the church scene. The Body of Christ is entering into the Kingdom age. It's offices will be fully operational and manifest a heaven sent unity with power and glory.

2. God will continue to take people up into the heavenly places and into His throne room. This season that we are in will see an increase of Bethel Encounters such as when Jacob laid down and saw the angels of God ascending and descending between Heaven and Earth. The difference being that now believers will increasingly ascend into the heavenlies to their positions of sitting with Christ Jesus. They will descend from this place to release the Kingdom into the earth. From this place of revelation we will hear on earth what God is speaking in heaven.

3. We are also in a time of visitation. A time when angelic visits are becoming regular occurrences. These angelic visitations will soon become ordinary in individual and corporate settings. They are always with us now but this season will see a dramatic increase in visible and active manifestations of these heavenly beings. They will be seen in great radiance ministering to the people of God and also manifest themselves in human form but in extraordinary roles.

4. There is a coming season of spiritual dreams and visions where God is downloading revelation from His Kingdom. Activity in these areas will dramatically increase. The people of God will become known for their wisdom and ability to interpret what God is saying. The mantle that rested on Daniel and others will rest on multitudes of God's people who are already positioned throughout the Body of Christ. God is turning up the tuners of His people. To hear and see what God is saying will be precise. Leaders of nations will turn to these ambassadors from Heaven. They will be ordinary people but dramatically anointed by the Holy Spirit for these assignments in the Church and more importantly outside the church walls.

5. The secrets of His Kingdom are found in the place of nearness to Him. Spiritual and intimate relationship with Him brings the voice of prophecy into this realm. Ecstatic and deep intimate experiences are going to increase to a flood like level. These profound and wonderful encounters with the living God will roll through the Body of Christ with great force. This release of Heaven is bringing destiny, purpose and power into all those seeking His heart and not just His hand of blessing. The mysteries of God will begin to be revealed on earth and it will affect every area of life. It will touch the spiritual needs of mankind deeply. This release of secrets from God will bring history shaking advancement in commerce, agriculture, medicine, health services, food distribution, poverty, science, exploration and renewal of the planet.

6. The birth pangs of the earth are soon to dramatically increase in anticipation of the manifestation of the Sons of God. They have increased in my generation but there is coming a dramatic increase unparalleled. These will be times of great Grace in the times of shaking and upheaval. There is a spiritual violence coming upon the earth not manifested through military or armed men and women but in conflict waged in the 2nd heaven and on the earth. Mankind will as well violently reach out to God in a violent desperate faith. They will break through the cloaks of unbelief, doubt and fear that the enemy has placed over mankind. This violent faith will bring the Kingdom into earth. The prayer of Jesus that He taught the Disciples will be finally fulfilled. "Father let Your will be done on earth as in Heaven" Matthew 6:10 As Jesus said " I saw Satan fall like lightning " Luke10: 18 so we will see satanic strongholds and principalities crashing down. These will be quick events like lightning. There will also be unexplained in the natural rumblings in the atmosphere that will make news headlines. As God moves in the heavens His moving Presence charges the molecular atmosphere and causes thunders and lightning. We will witness this phenomena as Ezekiel did. (Ezekiel

1:4) This manifestation of God's glory will be seen by many. This will be a majestic season coming to the earth.

7. The church will undergo tremendous times of saturation with the glory of God. We will see the activity of the Book of Acts surpassed in multiplied ways. The world news agencies will have day long special features to cover the unusual displays of God's Kingdom on earth. The old wine skins of the church will burst because of the new wine of the Holy Spirit breaking out and remaining on site. Yes, every denomination will be captivated by unusual habitations of God's Presence in their church buildings, their Board Rooms, their district and national offices. We will enter into what Daniel received from the Angel of revelation sent to Him (Daniel 12:10) “Many will be purified and made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will.”

The purpose and goals of the church will finally come into alignment with the Father's will on earth and she as the Bride will become glorious radiating the Presence of God in tangible beauty.

God is going to anoint children below 10 years of age with tremendous power and prophetic abilities. They will have angelic encounters. They will experience Throne Room assignments and commissioning from God that will stun the older generations. They will carry with them a child like nature but an amazing Presence of God through their varied anointing and callings. They will be very gifted supernaturally. They will become heroes of faith and walk in a humility given by God. They will also bring a tremendous influence into the arts , dance and expressions in song.

Rejuvenation of health and longevity will become common place among the redeemed. This will be a testimony of God's grace but confuse the medical profession. It will appear that a self healing property has been imparted from the Presence of God to many. The secret of this will be found in the communion elements.

All the miracles signs and wonders of Moses, Elijah, Elisha, Samson, Gideon,, David, Isaiah, Daniel, Ezekiel, John the Baptist, The first Apostles and others that God has used will reappear in this coming season. This time will advance the Kingdom of God on earth in Holiness, Purity and Power. All the peoples of the earth will know of God and have a sure witness before the end. As a result millions will come into as a harvest to honor the Lord.

Amen and so let it be.

Personal thoughts:

This is what I see coming. Many of these supernatural activities will come suddenly. It will come suddenly like an avalanche falling from the heights into the valleys. The movement of a tidal wave across the ocean is sudden with huge waves traveling thousands of kilometers in a short space of time. The third illustration that I have seen in my spirit is of a hand reaching to a control panel with a red fire button on it. When this button was pressed, it resulted in an immediate explosion. This is a sudden result. In like manner there will be an approaching of the Kingdom of God that will be measured in weeks, months and perhaps years.

We are moving into and through this time now in preparation.

However,.... the sudden arrival of the Kingdom of God is coming. When suddenly God is on the planet in a full demonstration of His Majestic Presence.

SECTION THREE
ENTERING THE PROPHETIC REALMS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

In this section I would like to give you the invitation to cultivate the gifts of the Holy Spirit in your life.

1 Corinthians 12: 31 tells us to earnestly desire the greater gifts. We are then led into chapter thirteen where love is the qualifying ingredient for operating in any of the Holy Spirit's gifts. Read chapter thirteen prayerfully to see how God defines love.

The only way we can operate in this kind of love is to be saturated by His Love. The only way we can be saturated with His love is by spending time in His Presence.

Out of intimate relationship with Him divine love will flow through us and manifest His spiritual gifts. This is what Jesus spoke of in John chapter fifteen.

You may ask, How can I experience spiritual intimate encounters with the Lord and His Kingdom? Allow me to quote from a previous book I wrote called The King's Treasury pages 15 to 17.

“Let me lay this foundation for you so you are positioned to receive from God. These are not in a set order but need to be in place in your relationship with God.

 Come to the Lord often to worship Him. Spend time there. Don't rush. Let the Holy Spirit lead you in this time of communion. This is not about bringing prayer lists before Him but about spending time with Him. Get past all the distractions that we are prone to in the mind. Distractions in the mind will subside and you will feel His peace fill your mind.

 As I sense worship rising in my spirit, I yield to that. I speak or softly sing in the spirit. Often soft worship playing in the room will set the spiritual atmosphere. This is about ministering to Him not about getting something from Him. This is about love and expressing that love to Him. He is looking for lovers and you can be one by expressing that devotion to Him.

 While in His presence I usually have my Bible close at hand because He may bring a passage to mind or lead me to one that He wants to communicate to me about. I follow Him there and receive what He is saying. He may show you sinfulness and when He does Deal with it. Be vulnerable. Drop your guards and let Him examine you. His blood will wash it away immediately if you confess this to Him. Other times He will reveal something that you never saw in those scriptures before.

 Be receptive. He uses the same faculties of communication that you use in the natural. Hearing, seeing, smelling, tasting, touching. I have experienced God's presence or what He is communicating on all these levels. If you read the scriptures carefully you will see the precedents there in the experiences of God's people as they encounter God.

Smell? Yes, I have experienced the beautiful fragrance of His Presence several times. It came as a delightful but heavy sense of mixed spices. Cinnamon is one of them and others I can't exactly identify but are flower extracts. These spices are fragrant spices not spices like curry or garlic or other cooking and preserving spices. Not pungent but sweet and sometimes the scent of Lilies.

Taste? Yes, Ezekiel was told to eat the scroll and it would taste like honey but be bitter in the stomach. Jesus promised to feed those that are hungry. David said “taste and see that the Lord is good.” This is not something my tongue has experienced but I have savored His Presence. Eating in His Presence is what He wants you to do. Feast on Him. He wants to come in and eat together with you. (Revelation 3:20)

 He also uses the mind’s capabilities to see images to communicate to us in word and picture forms. So be receptive. Don’t seek manifestations. Seek after Him and allow Him to give the prophetic downloads. He invites us to sit together with Him in Heavenly places. (Ephesians 2:6)

When you come before Him to worship He will reveal Himself to you more and more. Keep going before Him to minister to Him.

This brings delight to His heart. You will know His favor because of doing this. As you do this He will bring revelation to you.

A word of wisdom about some experiences that may arise in your pursuit of God.

If you encounter demonic distractions or intrusions don't be alarmed. They may come against you to hinder your quest for more of the Lord. Just dismiss them in the Name of Jesus Christ. They will dissipate like fog in the sunshine. Sometimes the Lord is actually showing you the enemies plans so you can render them null and void as you exercise the authority of Jesus Christ over them.

If angels come to you don't do something foolish like try to worship them. Acknowledge them because they are always around you but not often seen. Yours eyes may just be in the process of being opened by the Holy Spirit so you can see into the Kingdom realm. They may not always have a message for you but if they do you will know it. I have experienced the ministry of angels appearing before me and/or to lay hands on me to bless me.

On three occasions I have been in closed rooms and winds have briefly entered the closed room. On one occasion this angel (see Hebrews 1: 7) came through the roof like a whirlwind and when it touched me I was instantly saturated with an energy filled with the Father's love. On the two other occasions when angels have come as winds inside of closed rooms the pages of my Bible blew open to passages that were of vital importance for ministry. I have seen them in human forms and in glorious radiating forms. Sometimes they have come into dreams and escorted me away to heavenly sites or encounters with the Lord. Other times I have seen them there just to be with me on guard duty or to do the work of God's Kingdom in response to what the Holy Spirit leads me to pray about. They then go to do what is necessary to complete that prayer. (Psalm 103:20)

The Holy Spirit will cause you to experience different manifestations of His presence. I have experienced power that caused me to shake, caused me to laugh, brought tears, jolted me with electrical-like surges, caused me to leave my body in vision form to visit other earthly places or heavenly realms. At times I have felt such heat that I felt I was going to melt away. His grace and compassion has enabled me to minister in situations that normally were beyond human ability. His power and anointing always comes in greater measure than the need before us. I have experienced power flowing through me into those demon possessed so they could be set free. Anointing to heal the sick and to prophecy, all of these have flowed through my life when needed.

Embrace what He gives and ask Him to reveal Jesus Christ to you. Seek to know Jesus Christ, the Father and the Holy Spirit.

I have seen the Presence of the Lord Jesus Christ several times. Some of those appearances have been brilliant images so intense that I could hardly see the image. Other times He has revealed Himself in earth form so that we could talk and share together. His eyes are like deep pools capable of expressing fierce righteous anger, deep compassion and such intense sorrow that it breaks your heart. They penetrate deeply into the marrow of the bone exposing the inward parts and their thoughts. (Hebrews 4:12) I have seen Him laugh with such deep, profound and intense joy because of His delight in all the Father has created. This delight is also because of seeing the Father's will being accomplished in earth.

When He prayed Father let Your will be done on earth as it is in Heaven He prayed it with great joy. He earnestly pursues this because it brings delight to the Triune God.”

End of quote.

We are in for wonderful times ahead. His love and our love for Him will remove the fear of what will manifest on the earth. We will experience the awe... the fear of the Lord because of His awesome Presence.

Let me pray in conclusion:

Father we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ who provides redemption for all who call on Him in faith. We thank you for your Word. We thank you for sending the Holy Spirit who lives within us. Thank you for your grace, mercy and love. Thank you for your refining work within us. We are indebted to you. We love you and want to know you more and more. Take us out of the shadows into great revelation of Yourself so we can know you. We desire intimate relationship with you our God. Fill us with your Presence. Fulfill your will in our lives. May we be so full of You that You are able to manifest Your attributes through us.

We pray this in the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Thank you for joining me in this journey through this book Prophetic Journeys. Our paths will meet here on this earth or in His Presence in heaven.

Much love in Jesus,

Keith A. Paul
